

Announcements

Many of you have made annual giving pledges to support the ministries of St. Mary's in 2016. Thank you. If you have not turned in your annual giving pledge card for 2016, we need you. St. Mary's depends on the generous support of all of us.

What's Next for St. Mary's? This past June, after 38 years of service to St. Mary's (34 as rector) John Miller announced his retirement effective January 1, 2016. As Senior Warden Rich Lundvall informed the parish in a letter shortly after John's announcement, the Vestry voted unanimously to ask Bishop Shannon Johnston to appoint Associate Rector Weezie Blanchard as priest-in-charge effective upon John's retirement. To find out more details and what we can expect to happen after January 1, join John and Weezie in today's Adult Forum at 10:10 a.m. in the New Parish Hall.

Tag, you're it. The 6-7th Grade Youth Group is playing laser tag this afternoon from 3:40-5 p.m. at Laser Quest in Midlothian. Please plan to spend $16 for two games. Contact Matt Rawls at mrawls@stmarysgoochland.org for more information.

Support our school. Beginning tomorrow, November 16, through next Sunday, November 22, St. Mary's Episcopal School, our resident preschool, will hold a book sale featuring holiday-themed, religious, and preschooler-appropriate books. Check out the selection in the Sunday School Building during the week and when you're here next Sunday. The preschool is also selling greenery to support its important work, so take care of your holiday to-do list by ordering wreaths, poinsettias, and other seasonal plants. Find order forms in the Café, the narthexes of Little St. Mary's and New St. Mary's, and the church office.

Speaking of thank you. Thank you to everyone who participated in providing bags of food and checks for hams and turkeys for Thanksgiving meals for families served by our outreach partner Goochland Free Clinic and Family Services. St. Mary's, which contributed over half of the Thanksgiving meals needed, continues a strong tradition of support for Goochland Free Clinic and Family Services, some of whose core services were begun as missions of St. Mary's...and thank you to everyone who worked hard to make the retreat last weekend with Br. David Vryhof of the Society of Saint John the Evangelist such a success, including Bev Beck, Andrew Blair, Cabell Jones, Nancy Jones, Fay Lohr, Margaret Mickel, Susie Patton, Sydna Street, Armistead Talman, Peggy Talman, Charmaine Trice, and Joan Wilkins.
